Principal's Report:

The Wiz is the big focus right now. For the first time ever, we have 160 incoming freshmen who have chosen Renaissance and will be hiring two more teachers to accommodate. Academic award assemblies were held to recognize outstanding students. There is a new tardy policy with Saturday school as a repercussion if students reach 8 tardies or 10 absences to improve attendance and clear absences. Next year, all students will only have seven classes again. Students will not be allowed to get out early as per the school district, but some may start late. Academic Study Skills classes have been unsuccessful. The Fashion Show is April 18th at 6pm, will be a great show.

ASB Report:

Oliver Nieto reported that next week is March Spirit Week, there are themes and activities for each day. On April 17th, they are co-hosting Denim Day at lunch. There will be speakers to address sexual assault awareness and inform the students about staying safe. Donations of old jeans are welcome. April 18th is Club Fest, lunch is extended to two hours.
